

NICHOLAS HOFFMAN AND Co.

INVESTMENT COUNSEL

You are invited to attend Nicholas Hoffman & Company's 5th Annual Women's Investor Symposium, a four-luncheon series led by Carl Gambrell. Carl has over 34 years of money management experience, is an engaging professor, and can make complex financial markets comprehensible for the most novice of investors. Past participants indicated that they gained new insights on how the markets really work as well as a clearer picture of today's financial challenges.

Our hope is that you can attend all four sessions, however in case you are unable, Carl has designed each session to address a stand-alone topic:
