Tuesday, July 24 cont'd

1:30 – 2:30pm

It Wasn't My Fault: My Neurons Made Me Do It

- Professor the Rev. Dr. Alasdair Coles, Senior Lecturer, Department of Clinical Neurosciences, University of Cambridge

2:30 – 4:00pm

Croquet tournament and tea on the lawn of Madingley weather permitting

The origins of the quintessentially British game of croquet are obscure. However, it is known that the sport was introduced to England from Ireland in the 1830s. In the latter part of the 19th century and early 20th century, it grew very rapidly in popularity as an agreeable pastime for the upper classes and played on equal terms by men and women. From the scene in Alice in Wonderland where flamingos were used as mallets to the seriousness of the World Croquet Championship, players of all skill levels and ages enjoy the entertaining game of croquet.

4:00 – 5:00pm

Depart for American Cemetery and Memorial

The Cambridge American Cemetery and Memorial site was donated by the University of Cambridge. The only American World War II burial ground in England, the site holds 3,800 white crosses to pay tribute to the American men and women who died in the war as well as a wall to commemorate the more than 5,000 soldiers who gave their lives but whose remains were never recovered or identified.

5:00pm

9:30 – 11:00am

Punting along the River Cam weather permitting

A punt is a narrow, flat-bottomed boat that somewhat resembles a Venetian gondola with the curve removed. The design was developed in the Medieval period to allow for easy navigation in areas with shallow water. Poling along the river looks effortless and easy – a relaxing way to enjoy a quiet summer afternoon. Looks can be deceiving! Nonetheless, punting along the River Cam is one of the traditional delights of visiting Cambridge.
